

Chick-fil-A Leadership Scholarship Program

Fact Sheet

HISTORY: Chick-fil-A, Inc. founder S. Truett Cathy established the Team Member Scholarship program in 1973 to encourage Chick-fil-A restaurant employees to further their education. At that time, the program was the only one of its kind offered by a quick-service restaurant chain. In 1996, the company replaced the Team Member Scholarship with the Leadership Scholarship program, which places a greater emphasis on a restaurant employee's community service and leadership abilities. According to the Council for Aid to Education, no other company in terms of size does as much in the scholarship area as Chick-fil-A.

Through its Leadership Scholarship program, Chick-fil-A has offered more than $25 million in financial assistance to 25,000-plus restaurant team members who have attended 2,138 colleges, universities and other educational institutions throughout the country. In 2010, the company will award more than $1.9 million in scholarships to its restaurant team members.

REQUIREMENTS: Eligibility requires that restaurant employees complete their high school education, enroll in college, are active in their schools and communities, demonstrate a solid work ethic, and possess strong leadership abilities, good teamwork and a desire to succeed.

ADDITIONAL PROGRAMS:

Chick-fil-A, Inc. also awards S. Truett Cathy Scholar Awards, which provide additional $1,000 scholarships to the top 25 Chick-fil-A Leadership Scholarship recipients each year. Implemented in 1996 to commemorate the 25th anniversary of Chick-fil-A's scholarship program, this year's S. Truett Cathy Award recipients will bring the total awarded to $350,000.

Additionally, Chick-fil-A's WinShape Foundation provides thousands of dollars in scholarships to qualifying students enrolled in Berry College in Rome, Ga. WinShape's partnership with Berry College offers joint four-year scholarship funding to students of up to $32,000. To date, the foundation has awarded approximately 951 scholarships to students from across the nation to attend Berry, one of the top regional liberal arts schools in the country.

HEADQUARTERS: Chick-fil-A, Inc.
5200 Buffington Road
Atlanta, GA 30349-2998
(404) 765-8900
www.chick-fil-a.com